Private Peace Dickers With Stalin Urged

By MAX HARRELSON
PARIS—(AP)—France's President Vincent Auriol suggested today that President Truman, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Generalissimo Stalin meet for private talks in Paris during the session of the United Nations general assembly opening today.

The suggestion was made in a speech prepared for delivery before the 60-nation assembly's initial meeting.

Auriol did not mention the American, British and Russian leaders by name, but referred to them as the "distinguished men to whom all anxious eyes are turned."

He said he felt sure if they came here to consider their differences in private and within the scope of the United Nations, that progress could be made toward easing current world tensions.

Truman has replied to previous suggestions for a Big-Four meeting by saying that he would be glad to meet Stalin in Washington. Stalin, on the other hand, never has been willing to go so far from Russia. There has been no indication that either leader has changed his mind.

The U. N. Delegates, meanwhile, gathered for a session which even before Auriol's suggestion was being described as decisive for peace.

St. Louis Buried By Foot Of Snow; Traffic Stalled

ST. LOUIS — (AP)—The city's worst snowstorm in 39 years paralyzed the St. Louis metropolitan area of about 1,600,000 persons today and no letup was in sight before nightfall.

One foot of snow blanketed the city at midmorning. The record-breaking storm piled snow up to a depth of nearly two feet in other sections of Missouri.

Many roads and highways were impassable. Schools closed and business was sharply curtailed.

Thousands of persons were unable to get to work in St. Louis, where more snow fell in a 14-hour period than during the combined years of 1931 and 1932.

Wage Line Not Frozen, Chief Stabilizer Says

By HAROLD W. WARD

NEW YORK — (AP)—Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston said today that while the wage line is not frozen, neither is it a "sieve for wage inflation."

Johnston, in an address at the National CIO convention, said the government's wage policies are fair and assure "real earnings."

At the same time, he added, they provide "a strong framework of overall wage stabilization."

No Runaway Prices

The basic policy of allowing pay increases to keep pace with cost of living rises is fair, Johnston said, and was hammered out by labor, management, and public representative "working together in good faith on the Wage Stabilization Board."

"It is a policy which assumes we can hold the cost of living within bounds," Johnston said. "And if we're to do that, then wage rates must also be held within bounds."

"Prices must also be held within bounds," the economic controls chief added. "We are pushing the program of tailored price regulations as the most effective way to hold the price line. When costs are down, the public should get the benefit in lower price ceilings. That's our determined goal."

Stability Essential

"In living with the wage policy, labor makes a good bargain—it trades something for something. For wage adjustments which are less in many cases than the traffic would bear if it receives in return the assurance of stability, and that means the maintenance of real wages."

"This does not mean that labor isn't entitled to continue to share in increased output—in actual increased productivity. I think it should. That's fair and reasonable and will not be unstabilizing."

Reds Want To Call Off Korean Fighting Without Armistice

MUNSAN, Korea — (AP)—The United Nations command spokesman said today the Reds want to call off the fighting in Korea without signing a formal armistice.

The U. N., he said, will have none of that.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, the spokesman, told newsmen the Reds tipped their hand Tuesday when they rejected the latest Allied proposal. That was an offer Monday to set aside the stale-mated cease-fire buffer zone issue for the moment and take up other items that must be settled before a formal armistice can be signed.

Can't Take It

The Reds demanded, Nuckols said, immediate "final, formal solution" of the buffer zone matter before proceeding to the rest of the agenda.

Nuckols said this would in effect allow a de facto cease-fire—an end to the fighting without formal agreement—and let armistice talks drag on indefinitely.

Nuckols said he felt the Red rejection was flat and final.

However, Maj. Gen. Henry I. Hodges, chief of the U. N. buffer zone subcommittee, told newsmen he thought the turn down was "not a final, formal, irrevocable rejection."

There was speculation the Reds wanted an unofficial armistice (1) to get relief from Allied air poundings, (2) because it might pin down a great amount of the west's available military forces, and (3) because they can't stand another U. N. offensive.

Nuckols said the only incentive that makes the Reds keep talking is "continuing pressure of possible hostilities."

Must Free Captives

Nuckols gave this personal opinion:

"A de facto cease-fire without achieving other essential conditions for an armistice, including specific arrangements relating to prisoners of war now in enemy hands, is not even being considered by the United Nations command delegation."

"I don't think the United Nations has any intentions of walking away from Korea and leaving several thousands of its men prisoners in enemy hands."

An afternoon session was cancelled, presumably so the Reds could study further the four-point Allied program. The subcommittees will meet again at 11 a. m. tomorrow (9 p. m. EST Tuesday).

Work Stoppage To Emphasize Wage Demands

C. & N. W. Included
In Walkout Order

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen today called a strike on four major railroads to begin at 3 p. m. (Local Standard Time) Thursday.

President David B. Robertson said a work stoppage is "the only course left open to obtain long overdue increases in wages and improved working conditions."

All major railroads have been under government seizure for some time. This makes the employees technically government workers, and the government quite probably will seek a court injunction to stop the strike before it begins.

Teiup May Spread

Failure to obey a court order would lay the union and its leaders open to contempt penalties.

The strike was termed a "progressive" one, meaning that while the walkout initially was to affect four key railroads and their subsidiaries, other rail systems could be struck later.

The four lines on which the walkout Thursday was ordered are:

Chicago and Northwestern railway, including the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railway.

Terminal Railroad association of St. Louis.

Baltimore and Ohio railroad, including the Buffalo division and the Buffalo and Susquehanna district.

Louisville and Nashville railroad.

The union represents 105,000

Fickle Husband Shot At Pontiac

PONTIAC, Mich. — (AP)—The sharp bark of a rifle ripped through an apartment house on Pontiac's Orchard Lake street early today.

Police who rushed to the building found John Logan Channess, 47, dying in a hallway.

Behind the locked and bullet-pierced door of his apartment they found his wife, Dorothy Leone, 43. "I shot him," they quoted her as saying, "He'd beaten me before and wouldn't give me any money."

"When I saw him out last night with another woman, I knew there'd have to be some explaining."

Officer Hugh Stinson said that as Channess, a truck driver, knocked on the door on returning home, Mrs. Channess fired twice through it with the .22 rifle. The second shot struck Channess in the chest. He was dead on admission to Pontiac General hospital.

Mrs. Channess was taken to the Oakland county jail for investigation of murder. She had lived with Channess for two years, Stinson quoted her as saying. The officers described her as a common-law wife.

Eisenhower Goes Back To Europe With Fresh Data From Pentagon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman said today it was problems of European economic stability, growing out of the rearming effort, that brought Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to Washington.

"That is the reason—all speculation to the contrary—that is the reason General Eisenhower came to see me," Mr. Truman told the National Society of Cartoonists.

The president went to the Statler hotel to address a breakfast meeting of the cartoonists and to thank them for help in defense bond drives and other government programs.

How Much, How Fast?

He spoke, without a prepared manuscript and did not go into details of the problems talked over with Eisenhower yesterday. Implicit in his remarks, however, was the question whether U. S. allies in Europe can go through with the armament programs they have tackled without upsetting their economies.

As the president spoke, Eisenhower was preparing to return to his European defense command in France.

There seemed reason to believe that out of a series of White House and Pentagon conferences the supreme commander of Allied forces in Europe, among other things, had learned:

1. How much and how fast American production could go in supplying munitions to equip, at the earliest possible time, a Western European defensive force of up to 30 divisions. The European forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization which are equipped and combat-ready now number only about half that.

2. The latest overall plans for strategy and tactics of the Pentagon high command, possibly including revisions in battlefield techniques dictated by the advent of atomic arms in troop-against-troop warfare.

By chance, Eisenhower came to Washington for the conferences at a time when American military men and scientists were proof-testing on a Nevada range atomic weapons tailored to battlefield needs.

And the needs of the armies under Eisenhower are battlefield. They must stop, by a superiority of firepower, whatever manpower mass the Soviet Union might push forward in an attempt to conquer all Europe. If atomic firepower now can be made available to the tactical airplanes under Eisenhower's command it can help cover deficiencies until more NATO divisions can be armed with conventional weapons.

Voting Today May Help Clear Air Of Political Stenches

(By The Associated Press)

The strong stench of corrupt and racket-ridden politics has many Americans holding their noses these days. They may clear the air a bit with today's off-year election votes.

Many of the issues in a none-too-interesting campaign were left over by the recent red-hot Senate crime committee probe. The hearings turned over the stone on some pretty slimy characters—in and out of politics.

Republicans as well as Democrats were affected. Neither party was lily-white.

Looking Higher

New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Tampa, Fla.; Dearborn, Mich., and Atlantic City, N. J.—these are some of the places where morality in government is a sizzling campaign issue.

Nowhere is the hand of the departed Kefauver heavier than in New York City. The senator's chief committee counsel, Rudolph Halley, is spreading political wings for the first time.

Halley wants the $25,000-a-year job as president of New York's city council—the city's second highest post and considered a solid stepping stone to higher places.

He couldn't get Democratic organization support, which went to acting council president Joseph T. Sharkey. So Halley, a Democrat, settled for Independent-Liberal-Fusion party backing.

As an old across-the-table foe of gambler Frank Costello, Halley has made his chief issue "Costelloism" in the Democratic party. Costello has admitted friendship with more than one Democratic bigwig in Tammany Hall.

On Staten Island—rocked by recent New York State crime committee disclosures of graft in high places—District Attorney Herman Methessel is fighting to retain his $12,000 a year job in New York City's smallest county.

Chinese Reds Throw 10,000 Into Battle For Hills In Korea

U. S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea — (AP)—Chinese infantrymen captured a third hill on the expanding western front today and held two other peaks against Allied counterattacks.

The Reds won three other hills but lost them again.

The three-day-old Red offensive spread through drizzling rain over a 20-mile sector. Attacking Reds were supported by their heaviest display of armor in months. They hit United Nations forces from points west of Yonchon, eight miles north of the 38th parallel, to the hills north of Chorwon, western anchor of their old iron triangle.

Mist Grounds Airmen
Chinese attacks Tuesday took advantage of rains and mist which grounded most U. N. warplanes. The Fifth Air Force reported only 19 successful sorties during the day of which 16 were radar-directed bomb attacks on the Red front.

Chinese commanders employed elements of a division (up to 10,000 men) in their assaults in the west.

In the center of this sector waves of Reds struck from two directions behind a heavy barrage and captured their third peak. The attack opened with a heavy concentration of fire from mortars, artillery, tanks and self-propelled guns.

The force of the assault drove Allies from their muddy foxholes atop the hill northwest of Yonchon.

Allied Troops Stopped
West of Yonchon counterattacking Allied infantrymen were stopped in an attempt to recapture two hills the Reds overran in a vicious eight-hour battle at the start of their assault Sunday. The U. N. infantrymen fought to within 500 yards of the crests, under fire of 22 Red tanks.

There they were stopped. Waves of Reds stormed down from the peaks, trying to shove the Allies off the slopes. U. N. troops cut them down and held their positions.

U. N. forces withdrew from two hills north of Chorwon before a midnight attack by two Chinese battalions. The Allies stormed back after daylight. They found the hills deserted.

Home Fires Kill 12 In Michigan

(By The Associated Press)

Michigan's three-day toll of death by fire rose to 12 today (Tuesday) as a 70-year-old Detroit waste paper collector died when fire swept his flimsy dwelling.

The victim was Bloeslaw Morzejewski, seventh Detroit area fire fatality in the last two days.

Two children suffocated in a Flint basement fire Monday night. William Anderson, 4, and his sister, Nancy Sue, 3. They were the third and fourth to die in Flint fires in less than 48 hours.

Flint Fire Chief Harold C. Chirgwin blamed the fire to a frayed electric extension cord which broke against a coal bin and set it on fire. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson, were away at the time, the mother at a neighbor's.

Detroit counted a fire toll of six, the latest victim being four-year-old Allan Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sweet.

Allan started a fire while playing with matches in a closet. He was found burned to death beneath a heap of clothing. His mother suffered serious burns trying to fight her way into the closet after hearing his screams.

Potter told this to the Chippewa County Republican Women's association at nearby Rudyard last night. Auditor General John B. Martin is the only announced GOP senatorial candidate as yet.

Potter's remarks came after he was introduced by Chairman Robert Kline of the Chippewa County Republican committee as a "potential" candidate for senator.

The representative responded that he would be "flattered," but "I wouldn't bet too much on Chuck Potter's chances."

He said it was "important" to the nation that "Senator Vandenberg's successor" be replaced by "a real American and a Republican." Senator Blair Moody (D-Mich.) was named to succeed the late Republican Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg and has announced as a 1952 candidate for the seat he now holds.

Atomic Bombs Come In Sizes

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — (AP)—America's atom masters have developed an assortment of bombs of staggered sizes and staggering reactions that may in time make conventional weapons obsolete.

Award observers were unable to make any other conclusion as the first phase of the atomic energy commission's fall test series at Yucca Flat came to a smashing finale yesterday with a full scale A-bomb explosion.

No two blasts in the set of five just finished appeared identical—and the last one topped them all.

It seemed to have all the attributes of previous major A-bombs, including a flash and fireball that persisted 10 seconds. The fireball culminated a tower of flame hundreds of feet high.

The blast rocked the southern Nevada desert for many miles and was heard as far away as Richfield, Utah, 235 miles distant.

There was no report of damage although the explosion was twice as powerful as last Thursday's blast which shattered seven stores windows from a distance of 75 miles.

The AEC reported only slight radiation—far below the amount considered injurious to persons, animals, crops or water supplies.

George Foster Named Chief Highway Deputy

LANSING — (AP)—George M. Foster of East Lansing was appointed chief deputy state highway commissioner today.

Foster, a department bridge engineer since 1945, succeeds to the $12,000-a-year job vacated last Feb. 15 by Harry T. Ward.

Foster's appointment makes him number one man in the department under Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler.

Cold At Duluth Maroons Ships

Ore Freezing Forces Carriers To Tie Up

DULUTH, Minn.—(AP)—Sixty-eight Great Lakes freighters were crowded into the Duluth-Superior harbor today loading or awaiting their turn to load iron ore. Freezing temperatures caused the tie-up.

Ore from Minnesota's iron mines 50 miles away has been freezing into a solid lump in freight cars by the time it reaches the head of the lakes.

Necessary thawing with steam to make the ore flow into dock bunkers is causing the ship loading delays.

Almost all available dock space was utilized today as the vessels tied up for the long wait.

Typical of the delay was the experience of the ore freighter J. T. Hutchinson, which arrived last Friday afternoon. It couldn't leave for a down-lake port until 12:10 a. m. (CST) today.

Ice is forming in the harbor but dock officials said freighters so far are having little difficulty maneuvering.

This morning there were 46 ships waiting or loading at the Great Northern docks in Allouez, Wis., 19 at the Duluth, Missabe and Iron Range ore dock and four at the Northern Pacific docks in Superior.

About 35 freighters are enroute up the lakes to load.

Largest steaming point was in railroad yards at Proctor, Minn., on the Duluth outskirt, where locomotives generated steam for the thawing operations.

The temperature dropped to 2 above in Duluth early today.

Greyhound Bus Mechanic Goes Into Retirement

Si Rinkenberger, well known mechanic for the Northland Greyhound Lines at Escanaba since 1939, has retired from the bus company service, effective Nov. 1.

Rinkenberger was born in Woodford county, Ill., in 1885 and worked for the Soo Line railroad in St. Paul for some years. In 1922, he went to work for the Mesaba Transportation company at Hibbing, Minn., as a mechanic.

Rinkenberger left the employ of the Mesaba Transportation company in February, 1928, and joined the Northland Greyhound Lines. He worked at Hibbing until 1938 when he was transferred to Minneapolis and then to Minot, N. Dak. After a year at Minot, he came to Escanaba.

He will continue to reside in Escanaba, where he owns a home.

Escanaba Girl, 18, Is Reported Missing

Escanaba police this morning announced that Gloria L. McGillis, 18, daughter of Edward McGillis, 1207 1/2 Second avenue south, has been missing from her home since Nov. 1. Officials have requested that anyone possessing any information of the whereabouts of the missing girl to notify the Escanaba police department.

The girl is five feet, five inches tall, weighs 110 pounds. She has brown hair and blue eyes and when last seen was wearing a green coat, no hat, black skirt, red and blue plaid blouse.

It was believed that the girl may have gone to Milwaukee but inquiries there have not located the girl.

Network Highlights

NEW YORK—(AP)—The set of five movie-inspired radio programs under contract to CBS network now have been placed on the schedule on a definite basis. All will be heard weekly, the first November 18. The others are to follow nightly except Wednesday.

The programs, produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, use film stars as the stars. Their insertion in the schedule will necessitate considerable realignment. All will be broadcast from Hollywood.

The nightly listings, together with the other changes, will run in this manner:

Monday—8:30, Crime Does Not Pay, replacing Crime Fighters which moves to 9 in the time of Murder by Experts, being dropped.

Tuesday—8:30, Story of Dr. Kildare with Lionel Barrymore and Lew Ayres. Official Detective to move to 9, at which time John Steel, Adventurer, is being discontinued.

Thursday—8:30, Gracie Fields Variety Show, taking over from Rod and Gun Club, going to 9, now occupied by the quiz, True or False, for which a new time is being sought.

Friday—8:30, The Hardy Family with Lewis Stone and Mickey Rooney replacing the Dance Band period.

Saturday—8:30, Theater of the Air, Outstanding Dramas, to run an hour. Of the programs in that time, Take A Number, which has a morning series, will end its night run. Hawaii Calls will be moved to an afternoon spot after the football season closes.

Tuning tonight (Tuesday): NBC—8, Ginger Rogers in Cavalcade Drama; 8:30, Hollywood Theater "Mr. Magoo"; 9, Bob Hope Comedy; 9:30, Fibber and Molly; 10, Big Town Drama; 10:30, Playhouse On Broadway, "Shop Around The Corner."

CBS—8, People Are Funny; 8:30, Mr. and Mrs. North "Vacant Grave"; 9, Life With Luigi; 9:30, Pursuit Drama; 10, Meeting Mike.

Delta Community Chest Fund Reaches $17,234

Collections turned in yesterday afternoon and this morning and the morning mail brought an additional $972.31 into the Delta County Community Chest Fund to raise the total to $17,234.71, or $2,765.29 short of the goal of $20,000.

The army of Chest solicitors continued to pick up envelopes and contact persons who have not yet contributed and gave assurance that if perseverance and hard work will do it, the county's $20,000 goal will be reached.

The Escanaba total rose to $11,200.93, only $1,299.07 short of the quota of $12,500. The 1300 block under the captaincy of Miss Josephine Saykly was reported complete this morning. Every business establishment in the block except one contributed.

County, city and township chairmen again stressed that all persons who have not yet contributed should mail their donations to the county Chest headquarters at 710 1/2 Ludington street.

"If the canvass is to be complete and the goal reached by Thursday, every worker will have to make a serious effort to complete solicitation in his respective area," County Chairman Nicholas Chapek emphasized.

"And—again—all persons are reminded that this year's campaign will provide funds for six agencies in 1952. None of these six agencies will conduct a separate drive. People will not be contacted again for contributions for any of these agencies—the Michigan Children's Aid, Cod Liver Oil Fund, Salvation Army, Campfire Girls, Boy and Girl Scouts.

"If we are to increase the efficiency and prestige of the Community Chest to the point where one drive, eventually will do the work for all agencies, and end numerous solicitations, this year's campaign must be a complete success.

Build For Future "We are all building for the future to make Delta County a better place in which to live. Only by contributing something of our earnings can we help those who are less fortunate and truly make a Delta County a better place in which to live."

Nearly $900 was turned in over the weekend. Nearly $1,000 more was deposited this morning. If all solicitors double check their areas or districts and if all persons give who have not yet given, it is expected that the goal will be reached in Escanaba and throughout the county.

Work Is Halted On Water Plant

Cold Weather Balks Construction

Construction work on the Escanaba water filtration plant project has been suspended for the winter season because of cold weather, it has been announced by the Pearson Construction company, general contractors.

Work on the project will be resumed in the spring, probably in March or April. It is hoped to complete the job in 1952.

The dismantling of a defective concrete wall will be continued until this work is completed, probably the balance of this week. The weather is too cold for pouring concrete, however, and the piping installations cannot be made until the building is enclosed.

Marine Corps Gets New Boss

General Came Up As Shavetail In 1918

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman has named a new top boss for the Marines, effective Jan. 1.

He is Lt. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, Jr., whose fighting career takes in World War I and II battles that have become modern marine legends—Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, Okinawa.

Mr. Truman named Shepherd to succeed Gen. Clifton B. Cates, at the end of Cates' four-year tour of duty as marine commander.

One star will probably be taken from Cates, and given to Shepherd, to make him the marine's only full general while he is commandant. Cates will be assigned other duty, as yet unannounced.

Shepherd is 55 years old. He is now commanding general of the Pacific Fleet Marine Force, with headquarters at Pearl Harbor.

He is a graduate of Virginia Military Institute.

He began active duty in 1917, as a second lieutenant, at Port Royal, S. C. He was in the Fifth Marine regiment in France in 1918. He was twice wounded at Belleau Wood, and saw later action in the St. Mihiel and the Powers Soldier Was Killed In Korea

The body of Sgt. Donald N. Miller of Powers is being returned from the Korean area and will arrive under military escort in Bark River Friday morning.

Sgt. Miller was born January 7, 1932 in Powers and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Miller. He was a graduate of Powers-Spalding junior high school and a member of St. Francis Xavier church in Spalding.

Surviving are his parents; six sisters and four brothers. Mrs. Donald Cox, Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Jeanne Schoen, Chicago, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Wilson, Phyllis, Milwaukee, Evelyn, at home, and two sets of twins, Low and Lois and Ralph and Roger, all at home, and Marvin, with the U. S. Navy in Manila, Philippine Islands; and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Miller, Carney.

Sgt. Miller enlisted in the U. S. Army in Escanaba August 27, 1949, and was sent to Fort Sheridan for induction. He completed his basic training at Fort Riley, Kansas. In December of 1949, he was shipped to Japan. He was assigned to Company A of the 65th Combat Engineers of the 25th division in January of 1950. On May 25, 1951, he was killed in action in Korea.

Funeral services will be held from St. Francis Xavier church in Spalding Saturday morning at 9:30 with the Rev. Fr. Bernard Karal officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Spalding cemetery. Friends may call at the Boyle funeral home beginning at 10 Friday morning. The Tony Revard post of the American Legion of Powers will conduct the military rites.

Meuse-Argonne offensives He was wounded a third time.

He led the marines who captured Guam in World War II and later commanded the Sixth division, on Okinawa.

Shepherd took part in on-the-spot planning for the landing at Inchon which led to the United Nations breakthrough in North Korea last year.

Potato Quotas Higher In '52

Government Ups Goal 13 Million Bushels

American farmers were asked Monday to grow 13 million more bushels of potatoes next year than they did in 1951. The United States agriculture department in Washington asked for a total production of 350 million bushels and set goals totaling 1,565,000 acres.

The increase in the crop, despite huge surpluses in recent years, was described by the department as being for domestic needs and a reasonable margin for "contingencies." It did not elaborate.

United States production was down nearly 100 million from last year when it was 439,500,000 bushels. This year's is estimated at 337,122,000 bushels.

The federal department's acreage goal for the United States next year is 1,565,300. This year, potatoes were grown on 1,509,000 acres compared to 1,847,000 in 1950.

This year was the first time in nine years that potato prices were not supported by the government. In former years the government guaranteed the farmers a certain price. When the farmers could not sell their crops on the open market, they sold them to the government, which was stuck with them. The government, in turn, offered them back to the farmers at giveaway prices to use as livestock feed, but first dyed them to make them unfit for human consumption.

The government spent about a half a billion dollars since 1942 on potato price supports.

Prices have been fairly high on potatoes this year because of the reduced production.

Production was down both because of reduced acreage and the heavy rains of the summer and fall.

PAYING PRIVILEGE Stamps were not used on letters until 1840. Previous to that time, the receiver had the privilege of paying the postage or refusing the letter.

Sponsor Film On Scandinavia

Lecture Program Is Scheduled Nov. 12

What does the Russian "iron curtain" look like? Is communism threatening Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Norway? These and questions will be answered in Escanaba Nov. 12 in moving picture-lecture program sponsored by the North Star and Morning Star lodges.

The program will be presented by Russell Wright, whose documentary full-color moving picture "Eyes On Scandinavia" was several years in the making.

The program will start at 8:15 p. m., Monday, Nov. 12, in William Oliver auditorium, Escanaba junior high school.

Recently completing his fourth assignment in the Scandinavian countries, Wright's film includes scenes along the Russian frontier—the "iron curtain" separating communism and the Western World.

The reaction of the people of the Scandinavian countries to the Russian threat is reported by Wright in lecture, answers obtained by interviewing scores of persons in all walks of life in the Scandinavian countries.

Film-reporter Wright sought out and photographed people and places to show all aspects of activities in Scandinavia today.

His pictorial story shows the daily life of the people and their spirit to achieve recovery in building a new and better life. Wright also recorded the beauty of the Scandinavian countries, rich in scenic splendor and in history.

Home life in intimate pictures, rebuilding of cities to conform to modern housing standards, schools the equal of any in the world will be depicted in Wright's latest documentary film "Eyes on Scandinavia." Tickets are available through the North Star Lodge members, at Gust Asps, Beck's store, and in Gladstone at Olson's men's store.

IN MINSTREL SHOW TONIGHT—Above is Cleve Moore, who as Prince Spiderlegs, has been one of the laugh-enticing end men in the Kiwanis minstrel show, "What's Cookin'?" which will be presented for the last time at 8:15 tonight at the Wm. W. Oliver auditorium. The show played to a packed house last night. Costumes, such as the one shown above, were produced by a committee headed by Mrs. Lois Swank. Jungle scenery was painted by Mrs. Victor Powers, Mrs. Stack Smith and Mrs. William Perkins. Mrs. Karl E. Gray is chairman of the makeup committee. Sam Ham directs the musical portion of the show. O-JIB-WA USER REPORTS— PAINFUL NEURITIS QUICKLY OVERCOME

"Because of what O-JIB-WA BITTERS has done for me, I would highly recommend it to anyone," says Mrs. Mary E. Lint, 3961 Lakewood, Pontiac.

"I feel much better since taking O-JIB-WA BITTERS, but I suffered almost continually for three long years before trying this wonderful medicine. Neuritis settled in my back and across my shoulders, and no matter what I tried or done, it hung on like a bull-dog, and was very painful. Many nights the pain was so bad that I couldn't sleep, and often I couldn't raise a fork to feed myself. I read about the good results others had received in the Pontiac paper, and decided that O-Jib-Wa Bitters was certainly worth a trial. I purchased a bottle and started taking it, and in a month, I began to see a decided change. Now, I am entirely free of neuritis. The pain is completely gone and I have more pep and feel better in every way. I always keep O-JIB-WA in the house and wouldn't be without it. It has helped me so much that I am glad to tell others what it has done for me."

Certainly Deserves a Trial
Folks! we sincerely believe that if you give O-JIB-WA BITTERS a fair trial, that it will do more to rid your system of neuritis, arthritis and rheumatism than any other medicine sold today, but remember that every good product is imitated, and that there is only one genuine O-JIB-WA BITTERS. Don't be satisfied with something represented as being "just as good." Insist on the genuine O-JIB-WA BITTERS. Available at all leading drug stores in Michigan, and especially recommended by

Escanaba Plant Topic Of Story In Magazine

The Viau Sausage company, one of Escanaba's new industries, is the subject of an interesting article in the National Provisioner magazine.

The trade magazine article states that the company has doubled its production since the plant was rebuilt after being leveled by fire a few years ago.

Products of the plant are distributed within a radius of 75 miles from Escanaba. The Viau kitchen produces franks, bologna, pressed ham, Polish sausage, head cheese, liver sausage and other specialties.

Atty. John Root Will Address Kiwanis Monday

Atty. John H. Root will deliver an Armistice day talk at the meeting of the Escanaba Kiwanis club at the House of Ludington Monday noon.

A graduate of the University of Indiana law school, Atty. Root served in the United States Navy during World War II. He was discharged in February, 1946, with the rank of lieutenant senior grade.

New Peace Proposal Will Not Be Acceptable To Russians

AN American proposal to be made this week to the United Nations assembly, calling for a worldwide arms census, including an accounting of all atomic weapons, will not be acceptable to Soviet Russia.

The proposal calls for a strict system of verification for the atomic accounting. This means international inspection and, of course, the Russians will never allow foreigners to lift aside the iron curtain.

The new American proposal is presented as a drastic revision of U. S. policy because the American government previously refused to include atomic weapons in a proposed arms census.

Actually, it is not a drastic change in American policy because this country has long advocated international exchange of atomic information, provided such exchange includes international inspection of atomic plants and control of fissionable materials. It is upon this point that the proposals have broken down in the past. There is no reason to doubt that Russia will again reject it.

Russia makes a pretense of favoring international exchange of atomic information but the Soviets will not accept a system of inspection agreeable to the United States. What Russia really wants is information about atomic developments elsewhere in the world without being forced to reveal the true facts about atomic development in Russia.

From a propaganda standpoint, the new proposal to be made this week before the United Nations may be beneficial to the western powers. There appears small hope, however, that it can provide any real basis for world peace.

Chinese Red Guards

'Get Their Man'

YOU really have to admire the Communist anti-spy activities on the Korean front. In their dogged pursuit of enemy agents, they netted an 11-year-old South Korean boy. For 19 days he was held as a spy.

Actually, the lad was traipsing after a UN convoy when Chinese Red guards seized him at the Panmunjom bridge. He was merely curious, or perhaps in search of candy.

To explain away their ridiculous, humorless conduct, the Reds rehearsed the boy in a silly statement which seemed to convict him of serving South Korean troops.

But with the guileless habit of a child, when he finally was released he told UN officers: "I just said what they told me to say."

On the basis of this showing, it ought to be time for a shake-up in Communist counter-espionage.

U. P. CENSUS

(Menominee Herald-Leader)

The 1950 census shows that Menominee has climbed from sixth to fifth place among the cities of the Upper Peninsula, trading places with Iron Mountain. The Soo is now the largest city in the U. P., its 17,900 population topping Marquette by 700, while Escanaba is 2,000 behind Marquette. Ironwood holds onto fourth place, but it has lost more than 2,000 population in 10 years and is only 300 ahead of Menominee. The Soo's growth can be largely attributed to the ship locks in the St. Mary's river, through which passes most of the iron ore that makes our nation's steel. These locks must be serviced and protected and the process creates the greatest activity of the federal government in the Upper Peninsula, an industry which nourishes the growth of Sault Ste. Marie.

Mining, long the backbone of the peninsula's economy, along with lumbering, is booming, but mechanization of the industry keeps this boom from showing in employment figures the way it would have 25, or even 10 years ago. The peninsula's young forests are also increasing their contribution to the peninsula's income, but mechanization of logging reduces the jobs there, too.

The peninsula has lost population in the past decade but Menominee has grown. The basis for its economy is solid. Its resources are renewable, like farm and forest crops, fish, and industrial products, not exhaustible like ore. Its industry is varied and basic. It is sound economically at home; its chief weakness is its distance from large centers of sales distribution in a period of high transportation costs.

Divorces too often come when one of the two concerned is not tired of somebody else.

When only 50 per cent of the voters vote it leaves only 100 per cent of the folks to kick when something goes wrong.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — How worried Harry Truman has always been over General Eisenhower's running for president was first indicated by a conversation which Truman had with some of his closest advisers in June 1948 when a move was on to draft Eisenhower on the Democratic ticket.

The conference took place on the newly built $15,000 White House "back porch," then under Republican fire, and the most important adviser present was White House jester George Allen, who happened to be a good friend both of the president and General Eisenhower.

Truman was worried sick over the prospect of Ike's running, and he made little attempt to disguise his worry from those sitting with him in the cool of the June evening.

He knew, from political soundings throughout the country, that Ike could take the Democratic convention easily if he announced. Such assorted Democratic leaders as Jimmy Roosevelt in California, Senator-to-be Paul Douglas in Chicago, Carl Rice of Kansas and Mayor O'Dwyer in New York had made their views all too clear.

So Mr. Truman, determined not to be a political "accident" and determined to vindicate himself at the polls, stewed mentally over means of taking Eisenhower out of the race.

George Allen was optimistic. He agreed to leave the next day for New York, promised to come back with a letter from the general guaranteeing that he would not run. Allen did not think there would be much trouble about it.

Others were not so optimistic. Finally it was agreed to telephone Milton Eisenhower, then president of Kansas State university, now president of Penn State, and formerly an adviser in the Truman administration.

This was done. Milton assured the president's emissary that his brother was not going to run. Immediately thereafter, George Allen confirmed this by getting a definite public statement from the general.

MILTON IN REVERSE

Today, however, Milton Eisenhower has not given the Democrats a similar assurance. On the contrary he has privately told Senator Jim Duff of Pennsylvania, chief Eisenhower booster, that his brother will run—and on the Republican ticket.

President Truman has known this for some time. One way he knew it was an indication from his friend and Ike's friend George Allen. For early last summer, the president invited George aboard the presidential yacht Williamsburg and had a friendly talk about the world picture and Eisenhower.

Among other things, Truman told Allen that he considered the North Atlantic pact one of the most important cornerstones for world peace, and that Eisenhower's leadership was essential to it. In fact, he praised Eisenhower as one of the most constructive forces in Europe.

But he added that he was worried by Republican statements that they had assurances Ike was available for the GOP nomination; and he felt that both the United States and our Allies should know whether Ike was running the North Atlantic pact or running for president.

Truman suggested that the two were not compatible and that every move the general made in Paris would become a political issue back home if people felt he was a candidate.

IKE AS A DEMOCRAT

However, if Eisenhower really wanted to be president, Truman told George Allen that he would be much more at home in the Democratic party than with the Republicans. In that event, the president indicated that he would not have to run openly, but could be "summoned" to the presidency. In fact, Truman hinted that he might like to make the nominating speech himself.

The president then suggested that George Allen fly to Paris and have a heart-to-heart talk with Eisenhower. Allen in turn suggested that Mr. Truman write a friendly note in his own handwriting, summarizing his views.

George Allen delivered the note in Paris, and when he returned, reported at the White House that Eisenhower would not quit the North Atlantic pact in the near future to run for president; but that since the NATO job would be completed by next spring, he would have plenty of time to decide whether he was interested in politics.

In any event, Eisenhower definitely promised to talk to Truman before he did anything.

Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

New York—Fiorello H. LaGuardia was reelected to a third four-year term as mayor of the nation's biggest city.

Escanaba — Theodore Brock, who was mayor of Narvik, Norway, during the Nazi occupation, has been booked to speak on the Town Hall series here.

Manistique—Arthur Arbour of Escanaba has been awarded the contract for wrecking the old Hiawatha hotel here.

Gladstone—Carl Dahlbeck of Gladstone, who is enrolled in the home economics course at Michigan State college, was the subject of a feature story in the Detroit Times recently.

20 YEARS AGO

London—Wearing a loincloth and shawl, Mahatma Gandhi attended a formal reception at Buckingham Palace and stood before the king from whom he has been trying to wrest the vast Indian empire.

Little Rock, Ark.—Senator Thaddeus Caraway, Democrat, died at a hospital here.

Newberry—Atty. Torval E. Strom of Escanaba addressed the Newberry Lions club Monday.

Gladstone—C. C. Strickland, James T. Jones, C. E. Dehlin, J. M. Olson, O. K. Fjetland and R. A. Hale left for Chicago to attend the Northwestern-Minnesota football game.

It's useless to dispute the man who admits he's a failure.

'I'll Race You!'

Real Danger Of Truman's Censorship Order Will Come If Press Relaxes

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Capital observers say the real danger of the President's order which slaps military type security censorship regulations on all Federal agencies will come when and how the press relaxes its vigil on how the order is being administered.

For newspapermen, the order adds another burden to the already complicated job of getting the full and accurate story of what's going on in Washington to the taxpayers and voters.

The fact that practically all the agencies already have in effect the minimum standards for handling classified information set forth in the presidential decree creates suspicion as to why the president issued it in the first place.

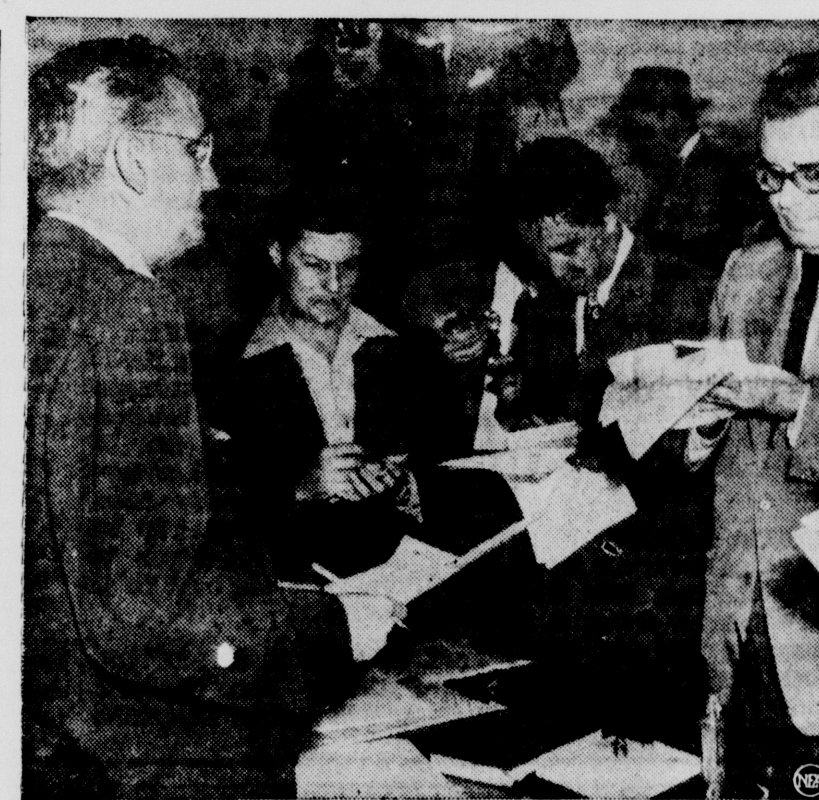

But even if it is accepted that no ulterior motives are involved, most responsible government public relations officers admit there is still grave danger of a threat to freedom of the press in the order.

So long as bright light is focused on the order, neither the public nor the press need worry too much about abuses. Government officials have become too smart about such things.

The boner pulled by the Office of Price Stabilization in putting a regulation under the new order which prohibited revealing anything "embarrassing to the agency," was promptly killed by the president.

But it's an executive order that will remain on the books until the president himself recinds it—which he says he is not going to do. It's always there for any irresponsible or over-zealous official to use against the public's best interest.

Depending on how the order is administered in a department, any number of high or low officials can stamp a security mark on a file and keep it hidden from public scrutiny. The presidential order contains no penalty for abusing the order.

ONE-MAN COURT? President Truman says Press Secretary Joe Short will handle newsmen's complaints of abuses under the new security order. But Short, shown (left) talking to reporters, barely has time to see newsmen in regular White House business.

This makes the odds all in favor of at least trying to hide some mistake or outright chicanery with a security stamp. What could an official lose? The order affords just one more chance to cover up, which he didn't have before.

The president has said that his Press Secretary Joe Short will act as a sort of one-man court of appeals when any reporter has a complaint of an abuse of the order. But Joe Short barely has time to see reporters on White House business, without taking on that chore. And such a task has nothing to do with his job.

The president has also told a group of newspaper managing editors protesting the order that he would consider adding some kind of a review procedure if they could suggest one that was satisfactory.

If the security system which the president has ordered for every agency works, however, "no material which is classified should ever be seen by a reporter. Thus, how could a reporter make an appeal on something he doesn't know anything about?

Spokesman for the White House point out that you've got to assume that the order is going to be wrongly administered to be against it. They claim that it will not be maladministered.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

JINGLE BELLS — The unseasonably early snow made a pretty blanket of white across the countryside, decorated the evergreens—and plugged some roads to traffic and caused an uncounted number of accidents.

With the Earl Therriaulls of Escanaba on our way to Green Bay for the Packers-Lions game we chose the bay shore road (M-35) to avoid traffic. So did a lot of other people.

At the Menominee county line the road was nearly drifted shut with snow. The Delta county section of the state highway had been well plowed. The Menominee county section was untouched by a plow for a distance of 12 or 15 miles.

On this stretch cars had been stuck all night. Only a one-way rut had been opened by the cars. We got through with luck and plenty of shoving, assisted by John Barstow of Fox, supervisor of his township.

BEAUTIFUL SNOW — The poet Longfellow may have loved the beautiful snow as ardently as he extolled it in rhyme, but we doubt others share his enthusiasm.

In this day the lovely white covering is a nuisance to man and should be rigidly controlled. Perhaps one of our senators or congressmen could call for an investigation, a committee could be established for the purpose, and the snow frightened back into Siberia.

Until that is accomplished people will have to continue shoveling and plowing and slipping around in the beautiful white snow. The cost will be in the millions of dollars, not including the pain and discomfort of broken bones and frosted toes.

THE FASTER PACE — In Longfellow's day folks holed up for the winter, traveled in wintertime only when it was absolutely essential.

For the past 30 years, however, automobiles have changed the wintertime habits of our people. It was about 1923 that main highways were first plowed and auto owners poured alcohol in the radiator, instead of putting the car up on blocks for the winter.

However inconvenient the old days may have seemed by modern standards, they did have certain advantages. No one tried to hurry in traveling, if you did go on a winter journey you bundled up like an Eskimo, and for miles at a time the horses would pick their own way without attention by the driver.

Now the car driver must be constantly alert on slippery roads, a skid can mean death if the speed is too fast or another car is coming, and few people wear enough clothing to keep warm if the auto heater stops.

HALFWAY HOUSE — Apparently the North Country is in for a return to the "old-fashioned" winter of heavy snows and colder weather.

Perhaps it is time also, to revive an old-fashioned custom known as the halfway house—a commercial establishment located between communities where travelers could find room and lodging for the night.

There once was such a place at Cedar River in the old days, and its counterpart Saturday night for Robert Mitchell of Marinette was the John Barstow home at Fox, north of Cedar River on M-35.

Mitchell, brother of John Mitchell of Escanaba, was in Escanaba for the Saturday wedding of Miss Nancy Moran and Calvin Larson, and started home in the evening. Hitting Menominee county's unplowed road he bogged down in the snow and spent the night with the hospitable Barstows.

KEEPING THEM OPEN—Both Delta and Menominee county road crews have a good reputation for keeping highways open.

They start plowing early and keep it up until the storm ends. What happened in Menominee county to keep M-35 plugged we do not know—perhaps mechanical breakdown.

One thing is certain: The Menominee road commission will hear about it. Which only proves that times have changed. Thirty years ago people didn't expect to travel so fast or so comfortably.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

SOME POINTS IN GRAMMAR

The man who seeks power with words does not rely solely upon an expanding list of words to impress his listeners. He must avoid pitfalls in grammar as well, misuses of simple little words which he has known all his life. How often, for example, do you hear the expression, "between the three of us," which, when you come to analyze it, is ridiculous, for "between" is merely the modern form of an old expression that meant "by twain," or "by two."

We see, then, that "between" should be used with reference to two persons, two groups, two things. Where there are three or more, it is proper to use "among" or "amid"; as, "We can divide it among the three of us"; "The puppy stood amid the three of us."

There are exceptions in the general rule for the use of "between." In rare instances, it has been used when, apparently, it applied to three parties alike. Closer examination reveals that the actual relation is between one of the three and each of the others separately. Thus, "A trade agreement 'between' the United States, England, and France," is seen to be actually three sets of identical agreements made individually between each two countries, because none of the three could represent either of the others in entering into such an agreement.

Such exceptional uses had best be avoided since they are liable to misunderstanding. It is safe to say, "Identical trade agreements were signed by the United States, England, and France."

Even worse than "between the three of us" is the grammatical atrocity, "between you and I." Many people are confused by this, led astray, perhaps, by the fact that "you" is sometimes a nominative and sometimes an objective, so they don't then know whether to say "and I" or "and me."

Obscene Literature Degrades Humanity

AN outlet for distribution of obscene literature in Escanaba was exposed yesterday with the arrest of a local man by state and local police. The defendant, George Kirt, pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and costs, the maximum under the misdemeanor statute.

Obscene literature, such as that seized in the raid by the police on a search warrant issued after some of the books were purchased by officers of the state police racket squad, are a degrading influence in any community. Their effect upon adults is serious, even to the extreme of contributing to vicious sex crimes. Their effect upon minors is particularly demoralizing and contributory to juvenile delinquency.

We hope that this arrest and conviction may cause an end to the trafficking locally in obscene and immoral books, playing cards, pictures, etc. If it does not, even more serious charges conceivably can be made against future violators.

Eisenhower Back In United States

GEN. EISENHOWER'S brief return to the United States from his command of Allied troops in Europe undoubtedly bears importance to the general's political future.

Whether Eisenhower will be a presidential candidate in the 1952 elections and, if so, whether as a Republican or a Democrat are political questions that probably will be answered soon.

The Allied army commander is conferring with President Truman today. It is indicated that the president will ask Eisenhower whether the general intends to leave his military post to seek the presidential nomination. Political leaders of both major parties also have indicated that they will confer with Eisenhower while he is in this country.

All of the uncertainty regarding the general's political desires should be clarified in a comparatively short time. It is evident that if the general does have political ambitions, or if he would accept a nomination if offered to him, he must state his position now. The Republican nomination probably would be clinched by Senator Taft long before the convention if Eisenhower remains silent.

Anniversaries

Comes a wedding anniversary, you wonder at its name, and why some special product wives and husbands must acclaim. When the first one comes, it's paper—very easy to promote, for it's likely you are slaving hard in paying off a note. Then it's cotton, then it's leather, then it's silk and then it's wood, and by Number Five, you may have known the joys of parenthood.

Soon it's iron and then it's copper, then appliances are stressed, and the ninth year features pottery to decorate your nest. And at ten, you're told to celebrate with gadgets made of tin, being proud you've marched together through the thick and through the thin. Steel and linen, lace and ivory, and then it's crystal time, and for fifteen years you're wed and, if you're lucky, saved a dime.

Twenty years and then it's china, though by then you have a lot, twenty-five and then it's silver, like the only hair you've got. And if health attends your lifetime and for fifty years you're wed, and you cannot help but wonder how the time so quickly sped, you are sure they named it rightly for it gleams like shining gold, with the wealth of love and happiness you've known in growing old.

Beef At Retail Must Be Graded

Another Warning Issued By OPS

Although more than 30 days have passed since the revised retail ceiling price regulation on beef went into effect, many meat markets in West Michigan and the Upper Peninsula still are not marking their beef displays with the U. S. government grade and selling price, according to the Grand Rapids District Office of Price Stabilization.

"The requirement that all cuts of beef must be clearly identified by government grade was written into the regulation as a protection to the consumer," Everett J. Davis, District OPS Director, explained. "Retail beef ceilings are set according to grade, which allows the customer to get the quality of meat he pays for."

The OPS regulation requires the retail dealer to label each tray or compartment of his showcase with the grade of beef it contains. Different grades of beef must be displayed in separate trays or compartments.

The U. S. government grades used by OPS for retail beef are, in order of their quality: Prime, Choice, Good, Commercial and Utility.

Davis said that the Grand Rapids OPS had received a number of consumer complaints that retail beef displays were not marked by grade, and that members of the OPS staff had noted many instances where beef displays were not grade marked. He indicated that these complaints were to be turned over to James H. McLaughlin, District OPS Enforcement Director.

Rules the Road but not Your Budget

1. Road Test a Mercury for proof of performance!

Watch a Mercury show its stuff when the light goes green. No doubt about it, you're the boss when you drive a Mercury. For here's a performer that never wilts when the going gets tough. You just can't beat its prize-winning combination of performance, value, and economy. Little wonder that Mercury is such a fast-growing star in popularity. Stop around for a road test and find out the facts firsthand!

2. Budget Test a Mercury for proof of value!

Does it have a down-to-earth first price? Mercury's price tag you can easily understand—a really big dollar's worth for every dollar invested.

Will upkeep stay low? You save money year after year. Mercury's famous stamina keeps repair bills at a rock-bottom low.

Will trade-in value stay high? Mercurys continue to keep their value; used car market reports consistently prove it.

Is it famous for long life? It is indeed! 92% of all Mercurys ever built for use in this country are still on the road, according to latest annual official registration figures.

3-WAY CHOICE!

For "the drive of your life" Mercury offers a triple choice in dependable transmissions. Mer-O-Matic Drive, the new simpler, smoother, more efficient automatic transmission—or the Mercury Mer-O-Matic Overdrive are optional at extra cost. There's also silent-ease standard transmission.

Tomorrow Night

A grocer's clinic sponsored by the Top O' Lake Michigan Chamber of Commerce, Michigan State College extension service, and the Northwest Fruit company, of Escanaba, will be held at the Manistique town hall tomorrow night, starting at 7:30. It is announced by Fred Heltman, chamber secretary.

Richard Hartwig, of Marquette, extension specialist in agricultural economics, will have charge of the session.

The clinic is for the benefit of food handlers and the public, and every grocer and food handler, including restaurant operators, should attend, Heltman said.

The Manistique town hall was selected, Heltman pointed out, because it has ample cooking facilities and sufficient space for fruit and vegetable displays.

Grocers will be taught new ways of trimming vegetables that will preserve their freshness, the chamber secretary stated.

Conference Votes To Extend Appreciation
To Manistique People

An expression of appreciation to Manistique people for their hospitality and courtesy during the 38th annual Upper Peninsula Older Boys Conference here Nov. 2 and 3 is contained in a resolution approved at the concluding session of the meeting.

Conference officials, including Cliff Drury, of Detroit, chairman, and Dr. Frank Slutz, Dayton, O., resource person and speaker, described the meeting as one of the best organized in conference history.

The resolution, presented by a committee composed of Bob Collins, Terry Thomson, Dale Ferguson and Wallace Cameron, follows:

"Whereas Manistique has found it possible to open their community to this conference, and has so splendidly performed the duties made necessary by such conference, that we publicly acknowledge the work performed by these individuals and committees and express our appreciation to them.

"They are as follows:

"William J. Norton and Lewis J. Merwin for publicity.

"William J. Cook president of the Rotary club, and his committee of A. J. Cayia, R. G. Hentschell, Ben Karwoski, Kenneth Van Eyck, J. McLaughlin, and Dr. James Fyvie for the splendid work of housing and transportation during this conference.

"To Superintendent A. F. Hall for use of the high school building and facilities.

"To the high school staff for their many kindnesses and services rendered through the various departments of the school.

"To the Michigan Dimension company for the very novel badges we received.

"To the Tribune Publishing company for the printing of these badges.

"To the Mead Corporation for the memo books.

"To Emil Knoph for the printed copies of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

"To the Zion Lutheran church and Elks club for the loan of their

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother Hilda Jackson who passed away a year ago November 9, 1950.

Mom, you know as I sit here today,

A year ago since you passed away;

My heart goes back to wander there,

And think what a wonderful mother you were.

Nine of us, just think of that.

It certainly must of been a task: To see us through thick and thin.

My, what a chore that must of been.

To think that we're all grown up today.

And now you had to be taken away;

But then we know you were tired and sad.

Because you wanted to be with dad.

Sadly missed by her children and grandchildren.

Middle East
Lecture TopicDr. Efimenco To Speak Tonight

Explosive situations in Iran and Iraq will be analyzed by Dr. Nicholas Marbury Efimenco, instructor in political science at the University of Michigan, during the fifth in a series of lectures at Manistique high school tonight.

The lecture is scheduled for 7:30.

Theme of the lecture is "The Problem of the Middle East", with which Dr. Efimenco is thoroughly familiar.

Before going to Michigan, Dr. Efimenco taught international relations at the University of Minnesota, and was instructor in the Far East area and language studies program for the army, both at Fort Snelling and the University of Minnesota. He received his doctorate in philosophy from the Minnesota university in June, 1948.

Dr. Efimenco was in Iraq from January to September, 1951, and should have much to add to his analysis of affairs in the Middle East.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to offer our heartfelt thanks to neighbors, relatives and friends for the kindness and sympathy extended to us at the time of our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved husband, father and brother. We are particularly grateful to those who sent spiritual or floral bouquets, to those who offered autos for the services, to Fr. Matt LaVolette for his consoling words, the All Saints Student choir and to all others who by word or deed assisted us at this time. The memory of these kindnesses will long remain with us.

With Minor Injuries

John Culliton, 12, son of Mrs. Fern Culliton, 319 Minnesota Avenue, had a lucky escape from serious injury about 2:45 Monday afternoon, when he rode his bike into an auto driven by Mrs. Rose M. Ames, city, at Wisconsin and 5th street. The boy was attempting to avoid being hit with snowballs and did not see the car.

According to the police report on the accident Culliton was riding south on Fifth street as Mrs. Ames backed out from a driveway.

The youth was taken to the office of a local physician where an examination revealed his injuries were limited to head and body bruises.

Illinois Escort For Perry Hurt Michigan's Chances

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — (AP) — An Illinois escort service may have had as much to do with Michigan's 7-0 loss at Champaign, Ill., Saturday as the blizzard-style weather or the Illinois offense.

It was a service provided by Illinois for Lowell Perry, Michigan's great offensive end, Perry, who had caught a dozen passes for 324 yards as Michigan rolled over Indiana, Iowa and Minnesota, didn't catch one against the unbeaten Illini.

Every time Perry went down field as a potential receiver, he was escorted by two Illinois players and was as closely covered as the president at a press conference.

Target Only Twice
Michigan only threw two of its nine pass attempts at the speedy junior end. And each time he had to attempt to catch sandwiched between his double escort.

Illinois Coach Ray Eliot was well aware of Perry's potential, and his team was well coached to stop that threat. Perry was often bumped before he could get out of the line enough to spoil his timing for a catch.

Michigan's throwers, Halfback Bill Putch and Quarterback Ted Toper, threw to End Fred Pickard and Halfback Wes Bradford as well as to each other. But their real hope was getting one off to Perry, whose ability to catch the ball and add yards is proved.

The two passes finally thrown to Perry came in the last period when Michigan was hovering about mid-field. Both were fairly long and would have moved the Wolverines deep into scoring territory and put the pressure on Illinois.

But the Illini escort service foiled that one and Michigan's sharpest weapon was nullified. It was the method that every coach employs, concentrating on the greatest threat. In the days when Michigan had more than one big threat, the opposition was split and the Wolverines rolled.

Webster Wins Crown In Touch Football League

Webster School swept through two playoff games to win the championship of the grade school touch football league last weekend.

Webster posted identical 6-0 wins over Washington and Jefferson schools. The three teams were tied for the lead at the end of regular season play. Webster will be presented with a league trophy in the near future.

"This year has been the most successful season in the grade school program," Recreation Director Art Peterson said. "Most boys played good clean football with sportsmanship high in all games. Coaches of the teams did a fine job in handling the boys on and off the field and should be commended," he added.

Tennessee Remains Top College Football Team

NEW YORK — (AP) — Mighty Tennessee's football team is the country's No. 1 college team for the third straight week in the estimation of the sports editors and broadcasters who participate in the weekly Associated Press poll.

The Tennessee outfit, which trounced North Carolina Saturday, 27 to 0, snared 60 of the 152 first place votes and remained on top of the heap with 1,230 points. The Vols were mentioned on every ballot and their placings ranged from first to tenth.

MSC Slumps
The shake-up with idle Michigan State slumping all the way from second to fifth and Illinois, victor by 7 to 0 over Michigan in a snowstorm, climbing from third to second. Maryland and Princeton also vaulted over the Spartans.

Baylor and California dropped out of the select group, their places going to Stanford and Texas. Below Michigan State came Southern California, Stanford, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin and Texas in that order.

Forty teams were mentioned on the flood of ballots, one oddity being that every member of the southwest circuit except Rice drew at least one vote.

The voters pick Tennessee as the best by a margin of 80 points over Illinois, despite the declaration of Gen. Bob Neyland, Vol coach, who says his team is vastly overrated.

"Not The Best"

"We make no claims at all for ourselves," he said after his club romped over North Carolina. "We think there are many teams in the country better than we are. We don't think we have the men or the schedule to be rated the best in the country."

The Tennessee schedule, admittedly weak in the early stages, has Washington & Lee, defending Southern Conference champion, following North Carolina. Then the Vols take on three traditional Southeastern Conference foes in a row. They are Mississippi, Kentucky and Vanderbilt in that order.

Michigan State, erstwhile runner up, was idle last weekend while preparing for Notre Dame. The Irish have been lolling in the second division since spilled by Southern Methodist but climbed to eleventh place today on the strength of their 19 to 0 pasting of Navy.

College Football Attendance Is Up Five Percent Over Last Season

NEW YORK — (AP) — College football is reversing the sports attendance slump with a 5 per cent increase according to a survey of 89 schools for the first half of the 1951 season.

A similar check at the same time last season showed a 2 per cent decline with television catching the blame.

The east, where the new controlled TV policies of the NCAA would seem to have most effect, shows a surprising 14 per cent increase. The south and far west each are up 6 per cent.

Midwest attendance remains almost at an even keel with a slight dip of .002 or about 64 paid per game. The southwest is down 3 per cent.

Fine Early Weather

Extra fine weather for the September and October phase of the season probably was an important factor in the east. The new TV policy, with only one major game piped in each week and sometimes a complete blackout, also had its effect.

It is impossible to draw up any conclusive figures on part-season reports. There will be no reports from the committees studying television's effect until the end of

Dressen Will Be Back Next Season As Brook Manager

BROOKLYN — (AP) — Chuck Dressen, hung in effigy not so long ago by Dodger fans, will be back as Brooklyn manager in 1952.

Dressen, although he hasn't signed a contract, was rehired yesterday for one year at a salary estimated at $30,000.

Brooklyn President Walter O'Malley announced the retention of Dressen in a press conference. It came as no surprise. Dodger Second Baseman Jackie Robinson confirmed rumors that Dressen would be retained last Friday in Los Angeles. Robinson said the players were told Dressen would return.

O'Malley began the press conference by saying, "Charley Dressen has not been signed for 1952—but he will be as soon as he comes east."

Regarding the terms of the contract O'Malley said, "changes are it will be the kind of contract we're beginning to like—one year. No trial clauses. Just a straight contract. If he thinks he's underpaid, we probably could get together," he continued. "But I don't think he's overpaid."

Ratterman Returns To New York Yanks

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — George Ratterman, travelling quarterback of pro football, is back in favor with the National Football league—at a cost of $2,000.

That's what it's costing him to return to good standing as a New York Yank.

NFL Commissioner Bert Bell announced yesterday that Ratterman, who forsook the Yanks last summer to play for pay with the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Provincial league, had been restored to the New York active player list.

Bell said the $2,000 bite was a fine for "action detrimental to professional football."

Ratterman, now eligible to play for the Yanks against San Francisco Sunday, signed a new contract with owner Ted Collins for the rest of this year and for the 1952 and 1953 seasons.

The early season football ticket sales at Syracuse University were almost doubled what they were last year just prior to the opening game.

Jim Martin, Detroit Lion's end from Notre Dame, has been nicknamed "Jughead" since he was a youth and wore shot hair cuts.

Bob Baker Gets Win Over Veteran Bivins

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Fresh from his victory over crafty Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland, heavyweight Bob Baker told his Pittsburgh friends today he's "ready for the big time."

"That's where the money is and that's where I want to be," the husky Negro boxer said after coping with a unanimous decision from Bivins.

The Steel City Negro, boasting a 31-pound weight advantage over Bivins, had little trouble in last night's fight. He couldn't set up Bivins for a kayo although he's knocked out 17 men in his 25 pro fights. The 24-year-old Pittsburgher has yet to lose a professional contest.

GOLF TOURNEY

PINEHURST, N. C. — (AP) — While defending champion Sam Snead and 100 or more other players on the invited list marked time today, some 120 less fortunate golfers battled it out for 20 remaining places in the $7,500 North and South open tournament beginning tomorrow.

Johnny Bright Is Through As Gridiron Star

DES MOINES — (AP) — Johnny Bright, college football's "Mr. Offense," has played his last game for Drake university.

The great Negro halfback, the nation's all-time total offense leader, reinjured his broken jaw last Saturday and yesterday was advised by a dental surgeon to quit. The Bulldogs close their season at Wichita Saturday.

Bright, from Fort Wayne, Ind., received the broken jaw against Oklahoma A&M Oct. 20. The incident brought Drake charges of "intentional attacks" upon Bright by an Aggie player and prompted a Missouri Valley conference investigation.

In his first game since the injury, Bright accounted for three touchdowns and 204 yards in three quarters of play to fire Drake to a 35-20 victory over Great Lakes.

Bright — in three seasons — has gained 3,134 yards rushing and 2,769 passing for a total offense of 5,903 yards. He has averaged 236.1 yards per game through 25 games and has figured in 384 points scored by Drake.

The unexpected end to Bright's college career probably will cost him his total offense lead—a position he has held since his sophomore year.

UCLA Coach Sees Big Ten Rose Bowl Win

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The seventh Rose bowl defeat of a Pacific Coast conference team in as many years was predicted during the weekly meeting of the Southern California football writers.

Coach Henry (Red) Sanders, UCLA, said yesterday that Illinois will trim anything the Coast could field on New Year's Day in Pasadena.

Broadway Clowns At Rapid River Wednesday Night

RAPID RIVER — Big time basketball will kick off the 1951-52 cage season in this town Wednesday night when the New York Broadway Clowns, colored team, takes on the Rapid River City team in an exhibition clash.

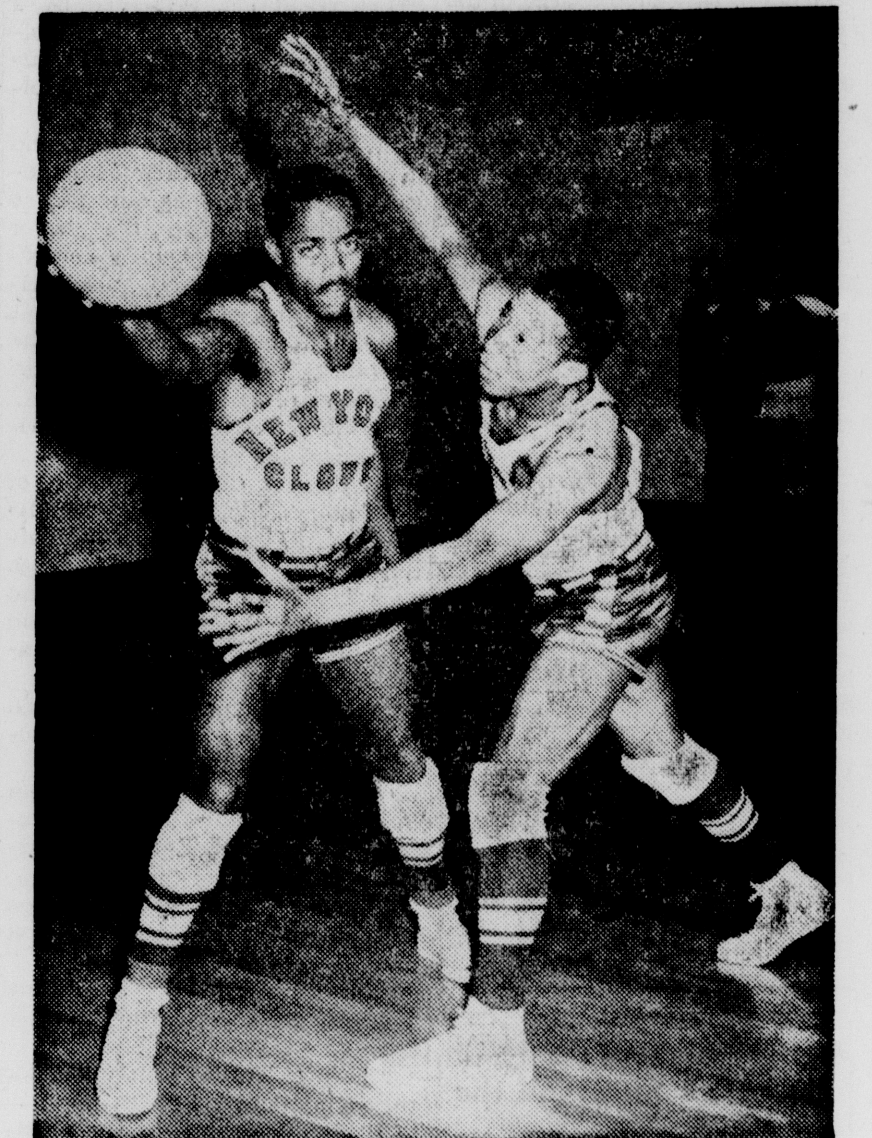

The Clowns, veteran road team, mix good basketball with the craziest antics ever dreamed up on the hardwood court. But comedy is not their only forte.

The Clowns number among their players Pedro Boyd, former North Carolina State College ace; Jackie White, former Philander-Smith College star; Wally Edwards, New York City, an outstanding performer with the Harlem Yankees of the Eastern league; Hal Robinson, three-time all-conference selection with Kentucky State College; Sid Davis and Gene Jones of Cleveland, last year's members of the Penzoils.

Opposing the Clowns will be a crew of handpicked stars of this area. Included will be Harold Anderson and Ira Hanson of Nahma, Norman Slough, Dale Gibson, Denny Thomas, Wilbur Oman, Allan Groleau and Eddie Gorham of Rapid River.

The game is expected to attract a huge attendance.

CAGE CLOWNS—Jackie White, holding the ball, and Bill Mobley are two of the outstanding members of the New York Broadway Clowns basketball team which invades the Rapid River gym Wednesday night. Both players pictured are former Harlem Globe Trotters. White, a graduate of Philander-Smith College, is regarded as one of the best showmen in the game.

Midwest Football Will Layoff Hurt MSC's Grid Game?

CHICAGO — (AP) — Midwest football roundup:

Illinois—Freshman Tackle Don Tate is hobbled with a sprained ankle and may be replaced by Bob Weddell against Iowa . . .

Iowa—Tackle Pete Spanner and defensive Back Bernie Bennett reinjured a knee and ankle, respectively, but are expected to work into shape for the Illinois engagement . . .

Minnesota — Freshman Buzz Meighen of Preston, Minn., has been shifted into the backfield on offense to replace Marty Engh, out with a bad ankle . . .

Indiana — Freshman Florian Helinski, who punted the Hoosiers out of trouble 14 times against Wisconsin, Ed Landenfield, Merle Reed and Don Domenic are bidding strongly for varsity spots . . .

Purdue — Veteran Halfbacks Earl Heninger and Phil Klezek and Fullback Jerry Thorpe were in uniform for the first time in weeks as the Boilermakers started drills for Northwestern . . .

Northwestern—X-rays will be taken of linebacker George King's knee to determine the extent of an injury suffered Saturday against Ohio State . . .

Wisconsin — Injured Halfback Roy Burks definitely will be ready for Penn and star End Gene Felker might be, Coach Ivy Williams reports . . .

Ohio State — Coach Woody Hayes plans "some, but not too much" rough practice this week in preparation for Pitt . . . He will use the same lineups on offense

EAST LANSING, Mich.—(AP)—Just how will last week's layoff from the football wars affect Michigan State's chances against Notre Dame?

"It certainly isn't going to help us," said Coach Biggie Munn. "If anything, it could hurt us."

Munn said the open date came at a bad time.

"A team should be at its peak after six games," he said. "A full like that can hurt their sharpness in hitting and timing. There is a big risk of a let down."

A good part of the workout Monday afternoon was devoted to the fundamentals of football with such routine work as signal drills, tackling and blocking the dummies.

The first part of the session was held indoors in steam-heated Jensen Fieldhouse. The squad then moved out into the biting cold for a 45-minute scrimmage.

Munn threw his two platoon backfields against a junior varsity defensive unit. The MSC scoring machine ran through plays with plenty of pep and speed and Munn said he was "well satisfied" with the showing.

Sealed bids will be received in the office of the undersigned until 8:00 p. m., E.S.T., November 15, 1951. Said bids will be publicly opened and read by the Council of the City of Escanaba at their regular meeting on November 15, 1951. Bids must be accompanied by a check in the amount of 10% of the amount of the bid. Envelope containing bid to be plainly marked, "Bid for the Purchase of City Land to be Opened November 15, 1951, at 8:00 p. m., E.S.T." The City of Escanaba reserves the right to waive any informalities in any bid, to accept any bid, or to reject any or all bids should it be deemed for its best interest so to do. GEORGE M. HARVEY, City Clerk. Dated Nov. 2, 1951. 10833-Nov. 5, 6, 7.

ORDINANCE NO. 229
AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND AN ORDINANCE ENTITLED, "AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR CITY PLANNING, THE CREATION, ORGANIZATION, POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE CITY PLANNING COMMISSION; REGULATION AND SUBDIVISION OF LAND; AFTER ADOPTION OF A MASTER PLAN, TO CERTIFY PLANS OF PRECISED PORTIONS THEREOF, TO THE CITY COUNCIL, TO ENABLE THE CITY BY ORDINANCE TO ADOPT SUCH CERTIFIED PLANS SHOWING THE FUTURE OUTSIDE LINES OF STREETS, WAYS, PLACES, PARKS, PLAYGROUNDS AND OTHER PUBLIC GROUNDS, AND TO REGULATE BUILDINGS WITHIN SUCH LINES, AND TO PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT", ADOPTED JANUARY 15, 1948, AND NUMBERED ORDINANCE NO. 179. THE CITY OF ESCANABA ORDAINS: SECTIONS AMENDED. Section 2 is hereby amended and Section 2 (a) is added. Sec. 2. The Commission shall have the powers, authority and duties contained in Act No. 285 of the Public Acts of Michigan for 1931, as amended, Acts No. 163 and 222, respectively, of the Public Acts of Michigan for 1943, as amended, with the exception of the following provision in Act No. 163 of the Public Acts of Michigan for 1943, as follows: "PROVIDED, that in case of disapproval the Commission shall communicate its reasons to the Council, which shall have the power to over-rule such disapproval by a recorded vote of not less than a majority of its entire membership." Section 2 (a). PROVIDED, however, that if the public way, ground, space, building, structure, or utility be one the authorization or financing of which does not under the law or charter provisions governing same, fall within the province of the municipal council, board, commission, or body having such jurisdiction, the planning commission's disapproval may be overruled by said board, commission, or body by a vote of not less than a majority of its entire membership. Section 3. This ordinance will be in full force and effect ten (10) days after its publication. Approved: GEORGE M. HARVEY, City Clerk. Adopted by the Council of the City of Escanaba at its regular meeting held on November 1, 1951. GEORGE M. HARVEY, City Clerk. 10834-Nov. 6, 1951

Gentry Magazine Offers Good Eating, Says Ruark

By ROBERT C. RUARK
NEW YORK—I have just been eating—no, wearing—no, smoking—no, reading—a very new magazine named Gentry, price two bucks, which purports to be all things to all people who have everything else they need except a magazine named Gentry which costs two bucks a throw.

It is a very unusual magazine. In the shirt-and-suit advertisements they attach a swatch of the actual shirt-or-suit material. There is a piece on food that carries a sachet of herbs. They promise a leaf of fine old tobacco in upcoming tobacco advertisements, and Lord only knows what we will get with the lingerie displays. There have been unusual inserts in magazines before, but I doubt the average housewife will hold still for a clipped-on live dame attired in a black lace corset. Causes talk in the neighborhood.

Finnish Bath Plans
Mayhap I am overly precious, but a full set of architectural plans on how to build your own private Finnish steam bath seems to be reaching just a touch for circulation. A man with a heavy desire for a steam bath of his own would scarcely wait with suspended breath for a magazine to come out to tell him how. He would probably pick up a phone and call a Finnish architect, drop the dough on the line and wait for the rocks to scorch.

Mohammed's advice to his son-in-law does not stun us with timelessness, either, nor does a full outlay on a convertible sweatshirt or the exhortation to throw a sprig of fresh gladiolus leaves into my next salad. Hate salads anyhow, even without gladioli.

Got a piece, too, called, "Now I Lay Me Down to Eat," based on the virtues of reclining gluttony. Us poor folk have trouble enough at buffet dinners, and trying to acquire a stray calory on a couch defeats me merely by intimation of difficulty.

There is a built-in bookmark with the new magazine, as well as booklet of duck engravings, which did not seem to be tethered to the master volume. It just sat inside, a sucker for a duck-engraving thief or an accident, in which it would fall onto the sidewalk and be forever lost. Also, there is a weighty bit on "What It Means to be a Man," and I am a mouse, myself.

This thing is full of pasted-on pictures and insets and tear-offs and dingle-dangles, which would lead you to wonder what they had in mind. Is this a general store, a clothing establishment, an implied tobacconist's? Or is it a magazine to be read instead of worn, eaten or sniffed.

New Journalism
Seems to me we are entering a fresh field of journalism so rich that no one man can be a critic. Not only must one agree or disagree with the prose, but must consider that very possibly the shirt flannel sits oddly with complexion, and that he look a frightful frump in the suitings on page 5. You can just hear the conversation in the smart Manhattan bars: "Joe's text is terrible, and on top of that, he attaches too much marjoram to his food section."

We were never ever able to cope fully with friend Fleur's late lamented flair, the magazine with the hole in its head, because there were so many dangling appendages and tear-off items, trick pages and come-see-me-tomorrow features. I used to read everything I could rip out, coupon-wise, and throw the rest away. In so doing I completely missed out on a piece I had written myself, showing you the risk of getting too tricky with make-up.

What happens to this thing, Gentry, is hard to say, but as a compliment to the new publication I would like to say that I never read a book that fit better, was warmer, washed better or smelt better than this latest boon to gracious living. They say in the front that they don't aim to explain themselves; Gentry will either justify itself or expire quietly. In the latter eventuality, I tread on tippy-toes, (unless some wizard in the food department pins a sirloin steak to the food page. It may be that some of us will buy the book just for eating purposes, and thereby keep it and us alive.

Soo Hill 4-H Club
WELLS—A 4-H club for boys over 10 years old was organized at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Buehler, Soo Hill. Fred Bernhardt, county agent, was present to assist in organization. Roger Mattson is junior leader. No officers were elected but the club adopted handicraft and archery as its project. The next meeting will be held at the Buehler home Wednesday evening, Nov. 14, at 7 p. m. and all boys over 10 in the area are invited. Others present at the first meeting were David Winker, Robert Anderson, Johnnie Peterson, Roy Cartwright and Bobby Mattson.

C&NW Offers Ski Junkets

Upper Peninsula Trips Scheduled

Weekend ski junkets to resorts in Wisconsin and Upper Michigan and a special New Year's Outing at Northern Holiday Inn at Marquette, Michigan, are features of this season's organized winter sports program announced by the Chicago and North Western Railway.

The New Year's Outing will consist of a special ski train leaving Chicago on Friday night, December 28, and arriving at Ironwood, Michigan, on Saturday morning where skiers will have their choice of skiing all day Saturday on Ironwood's famous Mount Zion or go directly to Northern Holiday Lodge for skating and tobogganing.

On Sunday and Monday morning, buses will transport the skiers directly to the highest ski hill in the Middle West, the 625-foot Porcupine Mountain on the shore of Lake Superior where a variety of ski runs up to 3,000 feet in length are available. A large pictured-windowed Skiers Chalet overlooks the slope and furnishes refreshments and hot lunches.

New Year's Eve will be ushered in back at the Lodge where an orchestra will furnish dance music and a midnight lunch will be served. Tuesday is open for skiing again at Porcupine Mountain or skating and tobogganing at the Lodge.

The weekend ski trips will be operated to Mount Telemark at Cable, Wisconsin, on January 11 and 25th, February 8 and 21, and March 7, and 14th. The Mount Telemark Ski Train will leave Chicago Friday nights at 6:30 p. m., arriving at Spooner, the next morning. Guests will stay at Lakewood Lodge and have two full days of skiing at Mount Telemark. Dances will be held on Saturday night at Lakewood Lodge.

Weekend trips will also be operated to Iron Mountain, Michigan aboard the streamliner Peninsula "400" leaving Chicago at 4:10 p. m. Friday, January 18, February 1 and 15th. Ski headquarters in Iron Mountain will be the Dickinson hotel with Saturday and Sunday open for all day skiing at Pine Mountain.
